Chairman

ZONING COMMISSION

Joseph E. Adams SECRETARY

SECTION 1. Authority and Purpose

These Regulations are adopted pursuant to Title 8, Chapter 124 of the General Statutes of the State of Connecticut, Revision of 1958, as amended, for the following purposes:

- To secure safety from fire, panic and other dangers;
- To promote health and the general welfare of the Town;
- To prevent overcrowding of land;
- To provide adequate light and air;
- To avoid undue crowding of population;
- To assure adequate facilities for transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks and other public requirements;
- To conserve the value of buildings and land and encourage the most appropriate use thereof.

SECTION 2. Establishment of Zones

The Town of Roxbury is hereby divided into four classes of zones, the boundaries of which shall be set forth on the various building zone maps to be adopted by the Commission from time to time. The original of each such map shall be dated and shall be authenticated by the signatures of the Chairman and the Secretary of the Commission and filed with the Town Clerk of the Town, and a copy thereof shall be attached to and made a part of these Regulations.

Such four classes of Zones shall be:

- a) Residence A Zone
- b) Residence B Zone
- c) Residence C Zone
- d) Business Zone

SECTION 3. Zoning Requirements

No building or premises shall be erected, used, occupied or maintained except for one or more of the following purposes:

(a) In a Residence A or Residence B Zone —

1. A single detached dwelling for not more than one (1) family.
2. Customary home enterprise by a person residing on the premises, provided there is no display or advertising sign except for a small name plate.
3. Schools, public libraries, public museums and churches, parish houses, and Sunday School buildings.
4. Clubs and recreational buildings which are not conducted for commercial purposes.
5. Farming, including dairying, cattle or sheep raising, truck gardens, roadside stands for the sale of farm products, provided the major portion of such products is raised on premises adjoining the stand, nurseries and greenhouses. Commercial hog raising is prohibited.

6. Accessory buildings as provided in Section 4.

7. Signs indicating for sale, for lease, for rent, and no trespassing and the like not over four (4) square feet in size referring only to the premises or tract on which they are located and excluding entirely any other signs, billboards, advertising devices of any character on either buildings, structures, trees, poles or other methods of suspension or erection.

(b) In a Residence C Zone —

1. Any purpose authorized for a Residence A or Residence B Zone.
2. A public utility building.
3. Chicken raising.

(c) In a Business Zone, any proper retail business, not including, however, any industry or manufacturing.

1. Any purpose authorized for Residence A or B Zone

SECTION 4. Accessory Buildings (Including Garages)

(a) In Residence Zones A, B and C no accessory building shall be built within fifty (50) feet of any street line nor within twelve (12) feet of the side lot boundary line of any adjoining lot. In addition any accessory building which is a chicken house shall conform to the provisions of Paragraph (C) of this Section.

(b) The limitations imposed by paragraph (a) of this Section upon the location of an accessory building shall not apply when the accessory building is incorporated as an integral part of the residence and both are of the same general construction.

(c) Chicken yards, pig stys, and chicken houses shall not be built within one hundred (100) feet of any street line nor within twenty (20) feet of the side boundary line of any adjoining lot in any Residence Zone. In a Residence A or B Zone, a chicken house shall be constructed to house not over one hundred (100) chickens and to have a floor area of not over three hundred (300) square feet, and there shall be not more than one chicken house to each residence to which it is appurtenant.

(d) No accessory building other than a barn or silo constituting part of a farm shall exceed, at any point, a height of twenty four (24) feet above finished grade when measured on the true perpendicular.

SECTION 5. Building Requirements

(a) No building to be used as a residence shall be erected which has a total living area of less than nine hundred (900) square feet nor which has a total ground floor area of less than seven hundred fifty (750) square feet exclusive of porches, garages, or other accessories.

(b) No wall, fence or other structure shall be erected and no hedge, shrub, tree or other growth shall be permitted in such location on a corner lot as to cause danger to traffic by obscuring the view.

(c) No accessory building shall be occupied for residence purposes, provided, however, that such part of a garage or stable as may be occupied by an employee or employees of the owner or tenant of the premises to the extent of a part of the ground floor or part of the upper floor of such garage or stable, may be used for such residential purposes.

(d) A boundary wall, or fence shall not be over four (4) feet high.

(e) Each building lot in a Residence Zone shall comply with the following minimum requirements:

1. Residence A Zone: At least two acres in area, and at least two hundred fifty (250) feet frontage on a public road.
2. Residence B Zone: At least two (2) acres in area, and at least two hundred and fifty (250) feet frontage on a public road.
3. Residence C Zone: At least three (3) acres in area, and at least two hundred and fifty (250) feet frontage on a public road.

(f) The lot or yard areas required by these Regulations for a particular building shall not be included as a part of the required lot or yard areas of any other building; no lot or yard areas of buildings existing at the time of the adoption of these Regulations shall be diminished below the requirements herein provided for buildings hereafter to be erected. No lot or yard area shall hereafter be subdivided and improved with one or more buildings, including accessory buildings, unless each and every lot in such subdivision shall conform to the requirements herein provided for buildings hereafter to be erected.

(g) Site Layout Requirements for Zone D. In order to promote the safety and general welfare of the community and to conserve and improve the physical appearance of the town, the Zoning Commission shall inspect site plans of all proposed commercial development and require the following standards be met:

1. A strip not less than 15' wide along the front of the lot shall be turfed, seeded and given other approved landscape treatment. A 6" curb shall separate this strip from the travelled portion of the existing frontage road. Vehicular entrances shall be a maximum of 30' wide and clearly defined. Such entrances shall not exceed 30% of the lot frontage.

2. Driveways and parking areas shall be paved and drain into catch basins within the site and be subject to the approval of the Board of Selectmen; where deemed necessary drainage into the town road rights-of-way shall be permitted subject to the approval of the Board of Selectmen.

3. On State Highway vehicular entrances shall be approved by the State Highway authority.

4. Storage areas shall be screened on all sides by a wall or fence of approved materials and be not less than 6 ft. high and/or by a planted strip not less than 15 ft. deep. No trash or other waste shall be stored in a location visible from nearby property.

5. Where a Business District adjoins a Residential District a buffer strip not less than 20 ft. wide shall be provided. Such a strip shall contain no buildings or structures or paved surfaces. Such a strip shall be turfed, seeded, or planted with at least two rows of Evergreen trees placed approximately on 12 ft. centers, or landscaped in some other manner approved by the Zoning Commission. Buffer strips shall be carefully maintained by the owner.

6. An applicant shall post a bond set by the Zoning Commission to cover the cost of site layout requirements.

SECTION 6. Building Zone Schedule

No building or accessories hereafter erected or altered shall exceed the height, number or size or accommodate or house a greater number of families, or have the septic tank fields nearer a river, stream or body of water, nor have a narrower or smaller front yard, rear yard or side yard, other than called for in the Schedule showing the size of lot and buildings for the zone in which such buildings may be located, which Schedule is incorporated in the Building Zone Map and is hereby made and declared to be a part of these Regulations.

SECTION 7. Permits

(a) No new construction or material alteration of any existing structure within any zone shall be commenced unless application shall be made in writing to the Secretary of the Zoning Commission by the owner or lessee, directly or through an agent, for a written permit to proceed with the work proposed. No such application will be considered unless the plans provide for external vertical surfacing of brick, stone, wood, concrete, asbestos shingles or a combination of any two or all of such building materials or other structurally acceptable materials. In case of residences, if wood be used, it shall be employed either as clapboards, shingles or vertical siding. In the case of accessory buildings metal may also be used. Such application shall state briefly the location and nature of the proposed work and approximate cost. Upon approval of such application the Zoning Commission will issue a written permit, which permit shall be valid if acted upon within twelve (12) months.

(b) Certificate of Occupancy

1. Application and payment for a certificate of occupancy at a cost of two dollars, payable to the Town of Roxbury, shall be made at the same time that the application for a building permit is submitted, said certificate of occupancy to be issued within ten (10) days after notice to the Commission that the erection or alteration of the building has been completed.
2. No premises or buildings hereafter erected or materially altered shall be used or occupied in whole or in part for any purpose whatsoever, until a certificate of occupancy shall have been issued therefor.

3. No change or extension of use and no material alteration shall be made in a non-conforming use of premises, without a certificate of occupancy.

4. Certificates of occupancy shall be issued by the Zoning Commission if it shall find that the proposed use and construction are in accordance with these Regulations.

SECTION 8. Non-conforming Buildings and Uses

(a) Any non-conforming use existing on November 10, 1954 may be continued in any existing building, structure or premises, and may be reconstructed and structurally altered and the non-conforming use therein changed, subject to the approval of the Zoning Commission.

(b) No non-conforming use, if once changed to a conforming use, shall be changed back so as to be non-conforming.

(c) No non-conforming use which shall have been discontinued for a period of one year shall be resumed or replaced by any other non-conforming use except with the approval of the Zoning Commission.

(d) No non-conforming use of a building or premises in a Residence Zone, shall be enlarged without the approval of the Zoning Commission.

SECTION 9. Completion and Restoration of Existing Buildings

Nothing herein contained shall prevent the restoration of a building destroyed by fire, explosions, or acts of God to the extent of not more than fifty (50) per cent of its value, provided that such restoration is completed within one year of the occurrence of such event, nor prevent the continuance of the use of such building or part thereof, or prevent a change of such existing use under the limitations provided in Section 6. But any building destroyed in the manner aforesaid to an extent exceeding fifty (50) per cent of its value at the time of such destruction may be reconstructed and thereafter used only in such manner as to conform to all the provisions of these Regulations, unless otherwise approved by the Zoning Commission.

SECTION 10.

The provisions of these Regulations shall have no application to municipal or governmental activities or building program.

SECTION 11. Interpretation

These Regulations do not repeal or annul or in any way impair any existing provisions of law, and in the event of any conflict between any of the provisions of the general laws, the provisions of the general laws shall be construed to be controlling.

SECTION 12. Zoning Board of Appeals

When in its judgment the public convenience and welfare will be substantially served and the appropriate use of neighboring property will not be substantially or permanently injured, the Zoning Board of Appeals may, in a specific case, authorize special exceptions to the Regulations herein established.

All appeals to the Zoning Board of Appeals shall be taken within fifteen (15) days from the order or other decision of the Zoning Commission by filing with the Zoning Commission or the officer from whom the appeal has been taken and with said board a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. All costs of such appeals shall be paid by the appellant.

Said board shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of any appeal and give due notice thereof to the parties and to the public and decide the same within a reasonable time.

SECTION 13. Amendments

The Regulations may, from time to time, be amended, changed, or repealed by the Zoning Commission, as provided in the General Statutes, amended.

SECTION 14. Enforcement

(a) The Zoning Regulations shall be enforced by the Zoning Commission, which is authorized to cause any building, structure, place, premises, or use to be inspected or examined and to order in writing the remedying of any condition found to exist therein or thereon in violation of any of these Regulations.

(b) Whoever shall violate any provisions of these Regulations shall be subject to the penalties provided by Chapter 43 of the General Statutes, Revision of 1949 as amended.

(c) The Chairman of the Zoning Commission is hereby designated as the officer to enforce these Regulations in accordance with the authority of Chapter 43 of the General Statutes, Revision of 1949 as amended.

SECTION 15. Administration

(a) All maps of property in the Town of Roxbury which are subdivided into plots or lots shall be laid out as to size and area in such manner as to comply with these Regulations, and must be approved by the Zoning Commission. Such maps shall be lettered and approved by the Chairman of the Zoning Commission and signed by him before being received and filed by the Town Clerk.

(b) The original of each Building Zone Map of the Town shall be kept in the office of the Town Clerk, and an accurate copy of such map shall be kept in the care of the Secretary of the Zoning Commission; all changes and alterations made by the Zoning Commission or the Board of Appeals shall be clearly indicated on the map copy held by the Secretary of the Zoning Commission.

SECTION 16. Validity

The invalidity of any section or provision of these Regulations shall not invalidate any other section or provision thereof.

SECTION 17. In Effect

The Regulations shall take effect July 1, 1965.

SECTION 18. Definitions

Where not otherwise provided, the following words or terms used in these Regulations shall have the following meanings:

Accessories: Porches, sun parlors, steps, hatchways, and other horizontal projections, which are a part of a building.

Building: Each independent structural unit or those units divided by a party wall.

Building Area: The maximum horizontal projected area of a building and its accessories.

Commission: The Zoning Commission of the Town of Roxbury.

Curb Level: The permanently established grade of the street in the front of the lot. When the lot level is higher than the curb level, the average level of the former along the wall in question may be taken as the base for measuring the heights of a side yard inner or outer court. Where a lot faces on two or more streets, the curb level of the higher street may be taken as the base for measuring the height.

Customary Home Enterprise: Shall mean one or more of the following activities, where conducted for profit and located within the home of the operator or on the same premises as said home, and employing not more than three non resident persons (not residing on premises).

(a) The preparation and sale of those products usually produced in a single home, garden, or farm, provided such are created entirely on the premises — such as home baking, needlework, fruits and produce, home preserves, and the like.

(b) The preparation and sale of the products of arts and crafts based on individual talent, provided such are created entirely on the premises by residents of the premises — such as painting and illustrating, woodcarving and cabinetmaking, ceramics, writing, sculpture, ornamental glass and metalworking, and the like.

(c) The conduct of a business or professional office where the principal resides on the premises, such as offices for: real estate, insurance, building business, doctor, engineer, and the like.

(d) A private workshop accessory to the skilled trade of the resident(s) of the premises, (provided there is no manufacture or sale of goods on the premises), such as workshop for: plumber, electrician, carpenter, heating contractor, painter-paperhanger, radio repairman, and the like.

Family: Any number of individuals, related by blood or legal adoption or by marriage, living and cooking together on the premises of a single housekeeping unit, including, in addition, not more than four (4) lodgers, or roomers, taken for hire; or a group of individuals, of not more than six (6) persons, not related by blood or marriage, but living together as a single housekeeping unit. In each instance the family shall be understood to include the necessary servants.

Height: The vertical distance measured from the curb level or finished grade to the highest point of the roof.

Lot: A parcel of land occupied or designed to be occupied, by one building and the accessory buildings or uses customarily incident to it, including such open spaces as are required by these Regulations and such open spaces as are arranged and designed to be used in connection with such building.

Non-conforming Use of Lot or Buildings: One that does not conform with the Regulations of the Zone in which it is situated.

Public Road: Legal town and/or State Highway.

Residence: A building in which living, cooking and sleeping accommodations are provided.

Retail Business: Retail stores and shops for the conduct of retail business provided, however, that the merchandise sold shall consist of one or more of the following:

Antiques, art supplies, bakery products, books, camera supplies, clothing, drugs, dry goods and appliances, oil & gas (service stations), flowers, furniture and interior decorating, garden and farm supplies, gifts, groceries, food, beer, hardware, household goods, jewelry, luggage, medicines, music, newspapers and magazines, notions, office supplies, shoes and shoe repairing, sporting goods, stationery, toilet articles, toys and such other light shopping goods as are customarily sold as retail merchandise.

Story: That part of a building between any floor and the floor above, or in the absence of a second floor; the ceiling or roof above. A story which extends less than three (3) feet above a curb or finished grade shall not be counted in determining the number of stories.

Story (Half): Any floor, two (2) feet or less below the plate, and under a pitch roof at the top of the building.

Street Line: The dividing line between the street and the lot.

Front Yard: An open, unoccupied space on the same lot with a building or its accessories, between the street wall of the building and street line of the lot.

Side Yard: An open, unoccupied space on the same lot with a building or its accessories, situated between the building and side line of the lot.

Rear Yard: An open, unoccupied space on the same lot, between the rear wall of the building or its accessories and the rear line of the lot.

Town: The Town of Roxbury.

Words used in the present tense include the future; the singular includes the plural and the plural the singular; the word lot includes the word plot, and the word building includes the word structure.

SECTION 19. Earth Materials Removal Regulations

Removal Permit, Application, Hearing and Notice.

(a) The removal of sod, loam, soil, clay, sand, borrow or gravel from any land in the Town of Roxbury not in public use is hereby prohibited except such removal in any zoning district as may be authorized by a permit issued by the Zoning Commission, with or without any or all of the limitations herein-after specified.

(b) The town Zoning Commission in granting any such permit may impose reasonable conditions protective of health, safety, and welfare in the community and of individuals in the community. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such conditions may include all or any of the following:

Limitation in respect to:

1. duration of removal permit
2. area and depth of excavation for removal
3. steepness of slopes remaining after excavation
4. distance between edge of excavation and neighboring properties or ways
5. temporary or permanent drainage
6. the posting of security or bond in a dollar amount to be determined by the Commission
7. replacement of not less than four (4) inches of topsoil over the whole of any land area from which earth materials are removed and seeding with not less than 90% perennial grass seed over the whole of such area except so much as the excavator may at the time of grass seeding elect to plant to groups of trees or shrubs, provided all sloping banks are protected by such planting from washing or gullying.
8. effectual and continuing control by the earth remover of leakage, overspill, blowoff, dropoff of deposit of any of the above specified earth materials onto any public ways in Roxbury from any vehicles carrying or removing any of such materials, on penalty of withdrawal of any such permit to excavate.

(c) No such permit shall be issued except upon written application therefor to the Zoning Commission.

(d) Each such application shall include a diagram to scale of the land concerned, indicating existing and proposed elevations in the area from which such materials are proposed to be excavated and stating the ownership and boundaries of the land for which such permit is sought, and the approximate location of existing public and private ways nearest such land.

(e) Permit or Denial promptly mailed.

A copy of any such permit granted by the Zoning Commission, stating all or any conditions imposed, or a copy of the denial by the Zoning Commission of any such application, stating the reasons for such denial shall be mailed forthwith by the Commission to the parties at interest.

(f) Earth Removal Exceptions:

The removal of small quantities or the removal incident to construction or agricultural operations may be carried out without resort to the Zoning Commission for approval.

(g) The foregoing regulations shall also be deemed not to prohibit the removal of such earth materials as may be necessitated in the construction or installation of utilities or other engineering works for public services or as may be necessitated in construction ways, provided the layout lines and grades of such ways have been duly approved prior to such removal.

(h) The foregoing regulations shall also be deemed not to prohibit the removal of any or all of the above specified earth materials by any person, firm or corporation who on the effective date of this Regulation shall be lawfully engaged in the business of dealing in or with any of such materials.

(i) Definitions:

Finished Grades: In general finished grades shall have a slope of not less than 2% and not more than 30%.

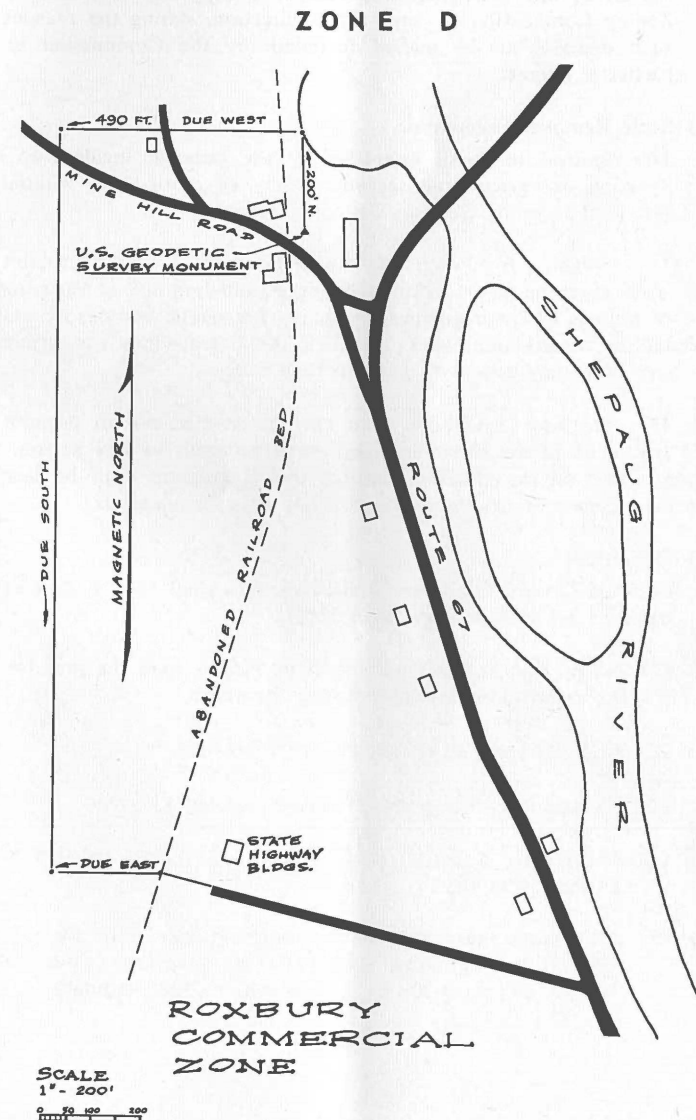

(j) (1) No permanent machinery shall be placed upon the premises for the removal of topsoil or other materials.

(2) No buildings shall be erected on the premises.

(3) No permit shall be issued for more than one (1) year.

(4) The fee for a permit shall be two (2) dollars payable to the Town of Roxbury.

(5) All persons engaged in earth removal operations on the effective date of this regulation shall have one year from said effective date to comply with the provisions of these regulations.
